

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Drunken man held up cars at north end of La Salle st. tunnel by lying on tracks. Police called.

Art Butler, negro, 6655 Vernon av., shot twice by Constantine Kuhn. Negro accused of attempting to rob him twice and following him in saloon at 4401 Wentworth av.

Detectives believe Mrs. Bertha Hoffman and 9-year-old daughter did not suicide. Found trunk had been moved from residence.

Mrs. Ethel Whittorn, who asked divorce recently, seeks custody of 8-year-old son.

James Reidy, 646 W. Elmon, city watchman, arrested. Flourished revolver.

Ernest Lee, negro, 4037 Federal, saved from mob after he attacked women at 40th and Halsted, by Det. Serg'ts Norton and McDonald.

Geo. Manners, Jr., who left home, 15 years ago, made good as dairy farmer, Evansville. Advertised for his father. Wants to give him comfortable home.

Thos. Barber, 310 S. Ashland av., and Wm. Marks, 1017 W. Congress arrested. Alleged pay-roll robbers of A. Stein & Co.

Henry Bauer, saloonkeeper, 3664 N. Clark, dodged five shots of burglars. Customers helpless. $24.

Jos. H. Annon, Capper & Capper salesman, Michigan av. and Monroe, pawned ring of Mrs. Jane Ring, widow, to bet at Derby. Police brought him back. They had planned to marry.

Theofil Cycon, 2320 S. Troy, shot himself. Wife died two weeks ago.

Fr. Babicz, saloonkeeper, 1728 17th, shot himself in right temple. Cause unknown.

Barber-shop at 209 W. 63d raided. Eight arrested. Walter Stanley booked as keeper of gambling house.

Policeman Pat S. Ryan, Canalport av. station, retires tomorrow after 26 years of service. Once rescued man from river.

Katherine Moya, 240 S. Western av., robbed of $9. Ogden av. and W. Jackson blvd. Young man.

Gertrude Witt, 117 S. Laflin, missing since May 27. Police searching. Despondent over unknown cause.

Wm. Varner, 3228 Lincoln av., robbed of $24. Ashland and Barry avs. Identified Chas. Ringmeyer, 1657 N. Halsted, as robber.

Dorothy Fay elected pres. dramatic club, Univ. of Chi. First girl to hold position.

Ethel Lengstom, arrested for robbing employer, decided to marry Christ Genhapolis, Minneapolis confectioner, arrested with her.

Dennis Hurley, conductor, robbed of $21.85 by two bandits, Van Buren and Morgan. Pulled trolley from wire.

"Flying Squad" arrested 11 alleged pickpockets yesterday.

Sam Kaiser, poet and humorist, gets job as managing editor on Daily News of Dayton, O.

Unidentified Italian shot in front of Hull House. Family feud, police believe.

Jennie Randolph, 4, 922 E. 62d, wants her mama. Mrs. Randolph left home Saturday.

Housewives of Evanston plan to install community flour mill. 50 per cent saving.

Fr. Adenry, 50, 2245 W. Adams, dead. Gas. Suicide, police believe.

Rev. Elmer L. Williams wrote open letter blaming Hoynes for crime. Said criminal law is not enforced.

Health Com'r Robertson says city lacks funds to purify beaches.

Kenwood club exempts all enlisting members from paying dues.

YOU'LL GET WILSON'S MESSAGE

The women's committee of the National Council for Defense has announced that as each man registers under the draft law on June 5 he will be given a copy of Pres. Wilson's war message.